

Scholarship Application

We are pleased to award this scholarship on behalf of Jerry Nerman and the membership of the UTA.

For 2017 the UTA is proud to be able to offer ten (10) $2,500 scholarships to someone sponsored by a UTA member in good standing. This is a one-time award for further education at an accredited degree granting institution. Successful candidates are NOT eligible to reapply.

Conditions of Scholarship: The award winner must be a full-time student and pursuing a degree in an accredited program. The scholarship will be awarded directly to the academic institution. A copy of the student's transcript may be requested once the school year begins. The scholarship is a one-time award. Unsuccessful candidates must reapply for future consideration.

Qualification Criteria Include:

- Community Activities
- Work Accomplishments
- Academic Success
- References
- School Activities

Application Procedure:

Each applicant is responsible for gathering and submitting all information to the UTA on or before Friday, September 1, 2017.

- Complete the attached application (click and type on PDF form)
- Provide digital (medium- to high-resolution jpeg format) picture and a biography of applicant (submit this information via email to: contact@uta.org)
- High school and college (if applicable) transcripts
- Two letters of recommendation from teachers
- One letter of recommendation from a non-relative in the community (business people, community leaders, coaches, etc).

The deadline for applying for the 2017 Scholarships is Friday, September 1, 2017. If the application is late or incomplete it will NOT be considered. The recipients will be determined by October 1, 2017 and notified by phone. The winners will be announced in the UTA Industry Watch newsletter and at the 17th Annual UTA Convention in November, 2017.
