

Kathryn Devero
Truck Central LLC
Wholesale Fleet Purchasing

I'm blessed doing what I love to do, which is buying and selling trucks & trailers across the country. When I am not working or traveling to inspect equipment, I enjoy riding and showing my horses at 3-day events. I enjoy teaching and practicing yoga. When I have downtime, my husband Chris and I enjoy traveling to our family home in Mexico. I also spend time working with our Fundraiser "Get Busy Living" which fights pediatric brain cancer. I have been married to my best friend and husband Chris for 8 years, we have (5) dogs, (2) horses, a donkey and a (1) sheep.
