

Rick Clark

Rick Clark is the Used Truck Association's President Emeritus, and Marketing Committee Chairman.

His past UTA history includes:

- UTA President (2018-2019)
- UTA President (2011-2016)
- UTA Vice President
- UTA Secretary
- Marketing Committee Chairman
- Medium Duty Committee Chairman

Since 1984, Rick has worked at National Truck Protection as Vice President of Sales.

His experience in the trucking industry also includes the following positions:

- Dover Diesel Service: Vice President of Sales
- Dover Diesel Used Truck Center: Vice President of Sales
- PacLease-Paragon Truck Leasing: President
- Cummins Metro-Power: Engine Sales Representative
- North Jersey Truck Center: Parts Driver & Truck Detailer

Rick's background with nonprofits includes:

- Glen Rock High School Boosters Club: President
- Glen Rock Football Association: President
- Glen Rock Soccer Association: Vice-President
- Ridgewood YMCA: Board of Directors
- All Saints Episcopal Church: Senior Warden & Vestry
- Episcopal Diocese of Newark; Ward J. Herbert: Board Member

Rick and his wife Leslie have three children, all of whom are married. His two daughters, Kristin and Lauren, are both school teachers. His son Michael is employed by Daimler Truck Remarketing. He has three granddaughters and another on the way.

Rick's parents are Bette and Dick, and Dick's served as truck dealer principle of a number of truck dealerships. His grandfather, J.C. Wright, first got the family in the truck dealership business back in 1921 with the White Motor Company.

