

Kelly Rolfe

Kelly serves as the Vice President of J&J Driveaway Systems, LLC and oversees all operations. With deep industry knowledge and relationships, she has acquired and maintained large contracts with some of the organization's most strategic customers. She has been nominated multiple times for Individual Member of the Year Award – Vendor through the Used Trucking Association and takes great pride with these nominations. Prior to J&J Driveaway Systems, LLC she was the General Manager of J&J Drive-Away, Inc and began her career in the used truck transportation industry in 2010. With her past experience and current goals, she looks forward to continuing to serve all in the Used Truck Association with honesty and integrity while building long lasting partnerships.